

Angels' Place, Inc. Gift Acceptance Policy

Thank you for thinking of Angels' Place to receive your donation! We appreciate your support, and are delighted to have partners share in our mission of supporting children and their families. These guidelines will assist you in determining whether the items you have to share are appropriate for the clients that we serve.

Angels' Place, Inc. solicits and accepts gifts that are consistent with its mission and that support its core programs, as well as special projects.

Monetary Donations: Monetary donations assist with the day-to-day operations and help to cover expenses such as salaries and utility bills. Monetary donations are most welcome! Checks made out to Angels' Place, Inc. may be mailed to 2615 Norwood Ave., Pittsburgh, PA, 15214 or dropped off at any of our three locations. As Angels' Place is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation, all donors will receive appropriate tax documentation.

Clothing: Angels' Place, Inc. accepts donations of children's clothing suitable for children from birth to age 5 and women's clothing. All clothing must be in good condition and clean to be accepted. Angels' Place Inc. is unable to accept torn, dirty or ripped clothing or men's clothing.

Toys & Books: Angels' Place, Inc. accepts donations of toys and books suitable for children from birth to age 5. To be accepted toys must be clean, in good condition and have no missing parts or parts that could pose a choking hazard. To be accepted books must be in good condition, have no torn pages, clean and suitable for children from ages birth to 5. Toys and books that are for children older than 5, are ripped or torn, dirty, and have pieces or pages missing or have pieces that pose a choking hazard will not be accepted.

Other Items: Please call ahead to determine if we have a need for other items. Due to space limitations, we may not be able to accept donations if there is not a current need for the item. Angels' Place Inc. may accept some special items that have value such as antiques or electronics for use for fundraising purposes. Contact Development Staff in these cases. Highchairs, strollers and riding toys will be accepted if they have not been recalled and have original hardware.

Unfortunately, government regulations prevent us from accepting these items: Cribs and car seats. We understand that these may be items that have served you well, but as we strive to be compliant with frequently changing safety regulations, etc., we are obligated to refuse any such goods.

Guidelines for dropping off donations: Items must be delivered to one of our three centers. Angels' Place, Inc. is not equipped to pick up items. Due to lack of storage space there may be times of the year that Angels' Place Inc. staff may have to refuse items. If items are refused as they are inappropriate or do not meet Angels' Place, Inc. guidelines, potential donors may be given suggestions of other organizations that accept donations with the warning that not all donations to organizations are tax deductible. Once an item is donated, Angels' Place Inc. reserves the right to dispose of it as it sees fit if the item becomes unusable or is not needed by the organization.

Accepting gifts of Real Estate or Other Non-cash Assets: The Executive Committee of Angels' Place, Inc. will be notified of any intention from an individual to donate real estate or other non-cash assets. These instances will be treated on an individual basis.
