Gratitude

Angels’ Place has proudly served the Greater Pittsburgh Region since 1984. The past year bears witness to the multitude of individuals working together to support our mission. Our families thrive and our community benefits when single parents complete their education, become gainfully employed and maintain rewarding careers.

This brief yet powerful report highlights the milestones of our shared success. Together with our dedicated Board of Directors, we extend our gratitude for uniting with us in creating hope and possibilities for parents and children.

Warmly,

Beth E. Banas | Executive Director
