EXCLUSIVELY OURS
This past year was a remarkable one! We acknowledge and treasure the people who made it possible to serve families throughout the pandemic. Years from now this will be a vague memory, but our annual report will mark an important moment in our history when we courageously moved forward to ensure parents and children completed their education.

Angels’ Place is proud to have maintained services during the eight-week mandatory closure. Since the beginning of this crisis, it was clear we could not abandon our families. We rapidly instituted our online learning program, and prior to reopening for direct care, we surveyed enrolled parents and are pleased to share the results:

· 100% said their children benefited from distant learning provided by teachers.
· 100% said services provided by the Family Support Director were valuable.
· 100% of children were offered daily live video calls with teachers.

Excited to reunite with families, both centers resumed services in May and, although our world looked different, we were overjoyed to be together again. The Board of Directors and I would like to thank each of you for the gifts of time, talents, resources and contributions. By sharing a message of hope, you opened a world of possibilities. We are proud of our families’ success.

Gratefully,

EXCLUSIVELY OURS
For 36 years, Angels’ Place has been an anchor organization, providing exceptional family support and quality early childhood education. Our vision is to help parents and children reach their potential and break the multi-generational cycle of poverty. Adults complete their education and find self-sustaining employment while their children are hard at work developing a foundation for school success.

Parents acquire the needed skills and resources to advance through life’s obstacles by participating in the Family Support program. Our parent education model targets parenting, resiliency and establishes a supportive network. The combination of both has a ripple effect not only on the families we serve but on future generations.

We strive to promote a culture of diversity, acceptance and inclusion offering families a place to belong. Every member of our community deserves an opportunity and Angels’ Place is responding to that call. Focused and enthusiastic, the student and working parents of Angels’ Place are developing responsible, civic minded families while actively contributing to the progress of our region.

GUIDING US FORWARD
You make a difference, and with your ongoing support, two generations of tomorrow’s leaders can achieve their dreams and realize a brighter future. Being involved ensures your investment in strengthening families produces positive results.

Along with you, our dedicated Board of Directors and staff consider our mission and the work we do as the greatest reward. We believe every child and family can be successful if given education and support. Our partners provide the crucial link between Angels’ Place and the surrounding neighborhoods.
